

Experiential Leadership Development Activity Pathway

New Zealand Army Leadership Centre | Army Command School

Reference: CDS A18011, A18008, A18010, A18009

Date: September 2026

Status: Draft for Validation

LEAD TEAMS → LEAD LEADERS → LEAD SYSTEMS → COMMAND

INCREASING SCOPE, INTERDEPENDENCE AND ORGANISATIONAL CONSEQUENCE →

	ELDA Lead Teams A18011 · 6 Training Days	ELDA Lead Leaders A18008 · 6 Training Days	ELDA Lead Systems A18010 · 7 Training Days	ELDA Command A18009 · 8–10 Training Days
SCOPE	INDIVIDUAL / TEAM →	OTHER LEADERS →	SYSTEM →	COMMAND COLLECTIVE / ORGANISATION
Scope	Leading a team	Leading among leaders	Leading across a system	Leading collectively at command level
Learners	Regular Force personnel selected for the A1530 Promotion All Corps RF JNCO Course.	Regular Force Officers (2LT and LT); Regular Force NCOs accepted onto the A1531 SNCO Promotion Course.	SNCOs and WOs accepted onto the A1532 All Corps Warrant Officer Course; Captains preparing for promotion to Major.	Established or forming command teams and leadership groups, including unit HQs, command teams, principal staff and subordinate command teams.
Aim	Develop individual leadership effectiveness through small-team leadership under pressure.	Develop leadership effectiveness through self-awareness, reflection and deliberate adaptation of leadership behaviour.	Develop leadership effectiveness within complex systems through understanding interdependencies, exercising influence and adapting leadership behaviour.	Develop collective command effectiveness through shared understanding, cohesion, collective judgement and deliberate creation of the conditions for organisational performance.
Developmental logic	LEAD SELF ↓ LEAD TEAM ↓ REFLECT ↓ DEVELOP	UNDERSTAND SELF ↓ UNDERSTAND OTHERS ↓ ADAPT BEHAVIOUR ↓ DEVELOP DELIBERATELY	UNDERSTAND THE SYSTEM ↓ NAVIGATE INTERDEPENDENCE ↓ INFLUENCE OUTCOMES ↓ ADAPT & DEVELOP	UNDERSTAND EACH OTHER ↓ BUILD COHESION ↓ EXERCISE COLLECTIVE JUDGEMENT ↓ CREATE THE CONDITIONS
Learning outcomes	LO 1.1 Apply strategies to maintain effective performance under pressure LO 1.2 Apply effective leadership behaviours within a small team under challenging conditions LO 1.3 Evaluate personal leadership performance and develop an individual leadership development plan	LO 1.1 Demonstrate Army ethos and values through leadership behaviour under challenging conditions LO 1.2 Evaluate personal leadership behaviour and its impact on others LO 1.3 Adapt leadership behaviour to improve effectiveness LO 1.4 Develop an individual leadership development strategy	LO 1.1 Demonstrate Army ethos, values and sound judgement within complex environments LO 1.2 Analyse relationships and interdependencies within a complex system LO 1.3 Influence others to achieve outcomes beyond direct authority LO 1.4 Evaluate and adapt leadership behaviour to improve system effectiveness	LO 1.1 Develop shared understanding within the command team LO 1.2 Strengthen cohesion and effectiveness across the command team LO 1.3 Exercise collective judgement in complex and demanding conditions LO 1.4 Create the conditions for organisational performance
Next step	ELDA Lead Leaders.	ELDA Lead Systems or ELDA Command, as appropriate to career pathway.	ELDA Command, as appropriate to career pathway.	Continued command-team development and application within command and senior leadership appointments.

KEY MESSAGE

The ELDA pathway deliberately expands the scope and complexity of leadership: from leading self and a small team, to understanding one's impact on other leaders, to influencing outcomes across an interconnected system, and ultimately to developing the collective effectiveness of command teams that create the conditions for organisational performance.