

EMBLEM FAMILY OPTIONS 2

Army Command School

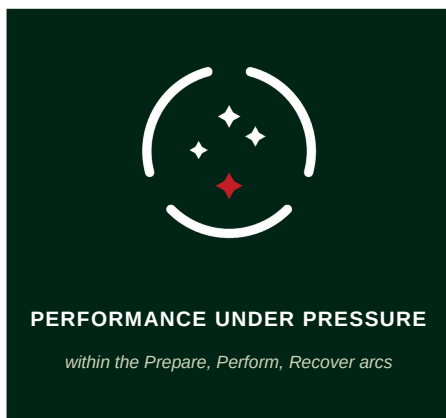

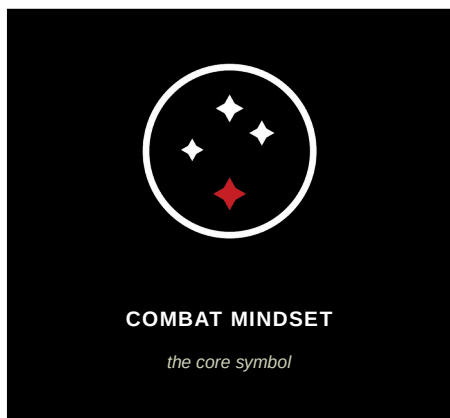

FAMILY A CHEVRON

Advance under pressure. Rank language every soldier reads; the red echo chevron is the follow-through.

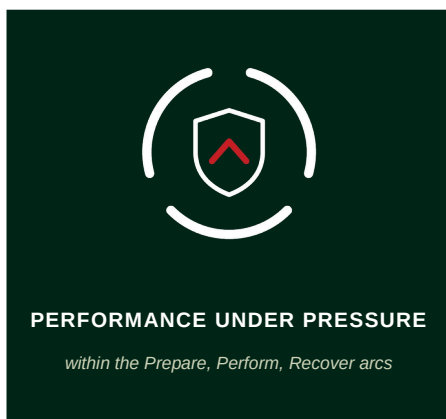

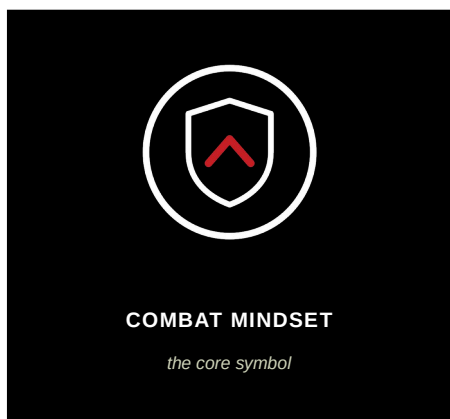

FAMILY B SOUTHERN CROSS

Orientation the New Zealand way. Navigation, identity and service under southern skies.

FAMILY C SHIELD

Protection, resilience and professionalism. The most formal; strongest for official documents.

Family grammar unchanged from round 1: one core symbol; the arcs add the enabling cycle; the grid adds the organising system. Any family can be dropped into the proposal banners for review.
